

JSA REGULATIONS

Including amendments approved at the Spring Biannual General Meeting on April 14, 2025.

JÖNKÖPING INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS SCHOOL
STUDENT ASSOCIATION

1. JIBS STUDENT ASSOCIATION

1.1. Definition

Jönköping International Business School Student Association – JSA is a student association, driven by JIBS students, at Jönköping International Business School – JIBS. The JSA acts independently from any political, religious or union parties.

JSA operates in the English language, which is common for an International Student Association.

1.2. Vision

JSA shall represent the students of JIBS and act on behalf of its members.

JSA shall be recognized as an international and entrepreneurial student association and thereby focus on educational quality, career opportunities, social activities and internationalization.

1.3. Mission

The JSA shall act in the best interest of the students at JIBS.

The JSA shall act within areas of educational quality, career opportunities, social activities and internationalization in order to examine, maintain and develop those areas for the benefit of the students.

The JSA board is responsible to implement the Vision of JSA to the extent that is possible.

2. MEMBERSHIP

2.1. Ordinary members

Ordinary members are those that study at JIBS and pay a membership fee to the student union.

2.2. Honorary member

A person may become an honorary member if they have made a valuable and lasting contribution to the association. Proposals are to be made in writing to the board. A 2/3 majority of the board is required for approval.

2.3. Supporting membership

A person can become a supporting member of JSA by paying a membership fee agreed at the Spring Biannual Meeting. Supporting members of JSA have the right to participate in JSA events but no right to vote at General Meetings. The supporting membership lasts one year at a time and can be renewed.

2.4. Membership fee

The membership fee is determined at the Biannual General Meeting in the spring. Honorary members do not pay membership fees.

2.5. Leaving JSA

The membership is automatically terminated at the end of each school semester. However, a student can choose to end their membership in the middle of a semester by emailing the President of JSA, stating their name, social security number, and reason for leaving. The termination will take place at the end of the semester, and no reimbursement of the paid membership fee will be provided. In the beginning of the following semester, the student may choose which faculty association their membership fee shall be assigned to.

5.6 Motions

Motions shall be submitted to the Board at least one week before to the Biannual General Meeting.

5.7 Interpellations

Interpellations shall be submitted to the Board at least one week before to the Biannual General Meeting. The board shall officially answer interpellations at the Biannual General Meeting.

5.8 Voting rights

Voting rights at the Biannual General Meeting are held by ordinary paid-up members of the association, and by honorary members. The current President of the Association also has the right to vote. Presence at the meeting is mandatory to secure ones voting rights.

5.9 Voting

5.9.1 Decision-making procedures

Decisions are generally made by simple majority vote, i.e. more than half of all valid votes cast. If there is a hung vote before a decision, the Chairperson of the Board has the casting vote.

5.9.2 Votes

All votes shall be open. By the request of any member, secret ballots shall be used in the decision.

5.9.3 Elections

If there is only one candidate for a position, the election will be done with an open vote unless agreed otherwise. If there is more than one candidate for a position the election will automatically be by a secret ballot. For votes where secret ballots are used, the candidate who receives more than half of the votes is elected. If none of the candidates receive more than half of the votes, a new voting round is held. For this new round, the two candidates with the most votes from the first round will be up for vote again. If there is still a hung vote, a new round of questions will be held with the remaining two candidates after which the voting process is repeated. If the situation is left in a hung vote after this new round of questions and voting, the decision is left to the election committee.

5.10 Minutes

Minutes must be taken at the Biannual General Meetings by an elected secretary and are to be checked by the chairperson of the meeting and elected adjusters. These minutes are to be made available to the association's members no later than four weeks after the date of the Biannual General Meetings.

6. ELECTION OF THE BOARD

6.1 Eligibility

In order to be able to apply for the board of the association, the candidate must be a member of the association at the moment of application. This does not apply to the current President of the association who can apply for one round of re-election if they wish to do so.

6.2 The Election Committee

The Election Committee shall consist of JSA members and the composition shall be one Head and a minimum of one representative from bachelor and master level of study. The Election Committee shall strive to be diversified. The Head of the Election Committee is elected at the Biannual General Meeting in the spring and will subsequently appoint members of the Election Committee at least one month before the Biannual General Meeting in the fall at which the elections are held. The Election Committee shall have 4 – 6 members including the Head of the Committee.

6.3 Duty of the Election Committee

The duty of the Election Committee is to review candidates to the JSA Board and assess their suitability before the Biannual General Meeting. This should be done through a process of evaluating applications and conducting interviews with the applicants. The Election Committee will explain their considerations at the Biannual General Meeting.

6.4 Election of board members

All candidates in the election should be present at the Biannual General Meeting. They should have the possibility to have a short speech and the members should have the right to ask questions. In the case of a candidate being absent at the Biannual General Meeting, it is up to the Biannual General Meeting to decide if the application should be considered for the election.

6.5 Election of Treasurer

When electing Treasurer, preferably only candidates with documented skills and/or practical experience of book-keeping, should candidate. If there is no eligible candidate, the bookkeeping can be taken care of an independent consultant after decision by the JSA board. The closing of the books and the annual financial report shall be taken care of by an independent consultant. The current treasurer shall cooperate with the Election Committee at the review of candidates.

6.6 By-election

If a position is not filled at the biannual meeting, the position will be vacant and the current JSA board will together with the election committee be in charge of filling that position.

In the case of the Biannual meeting deciding to hand over the decision power to the board instead of an extra biannual meeting, the JSA Board makes the final decision on which candidate will fill the vacant position, following the constitutions of a quorum as detailed in 4.3.5 of these regulations.
